CHARGE OF ROBBING ROOMS

DETECTIVES MAKE ARRESTS RE-GARDED AS IMPORTANT.

Thieves Ransacked Rooms in a Local Hotel-Defendants Taken From Railroad Train.

Detectives Hartigan, Evans and Mullen last night made two arrests regarded as important, the prisoners, it is charged, having robbed five rooms in the Riggs House. Several other rooms were ransacked, but nothing was taken from them. One prisoner gave his name as Frank A. Adams, his age as twenty years, and said he was a window trimmer. He mentioned his address as 564 East street, Camden, N. J. The other man said his name is Henry Atwood; that he is twenty-one years of age; that he had been working as a waiter, and that his home address is 217 West 38th street, New York city. The men had only about 75 cents in cash and two railroad tickets, entitling them to transportation to Baltimore, in their pockets when they were arrested.

The prisoners were taken from the 7:40 o'clock train at the Baltimore and Potomac depot just after two sult cases that had been taken from the hotel had been handed them by a colored porter, the cases having been in the check room at the depot over night.

On reaching police headquarters, the prisoners positively declined to make any statement about their possession of the stolen property. They were locked up at different police stations over night, and this morning were measured and photographed for the gallery. Photographs of the two men taken in the west were removed from their suit cases. The names of the makers of the clothing they wore had been cut from the garments, and the detectives were unable to find a letter or other writ-ing on either of them to indicate anything regarding their identity. The detectives learned that Atwood had recently register-ed at a local hotel under the name of W. H. Davis, and he was given that alias.

Report to Police.

The robberies were committed last Wednesday night and report of two of them was made to the police yesterday morning. It was while the detectives were investigate ing the reports that they learned of the other rooms having been visited. Those from whose rooms valuables were taken are: Dr. Charles E. Lane, 289 Mill street, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Silven B. Bemis, 517 Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Silven B. Bemis, 517 Main street, amestown, N. Y.; Dr. L. W. Rose, Rochester; Charles C. Leavens, cashier in the hotel, and Miss Fannie J. Williams, the latter's sister-in-law, whose home is at Cameron, N. Y. The room of Miss Ida H. Pehler of Winona, Minn., was ransacked, but nothing was taken. Other rooms were also visited, but nothing removed. Detectives Hartigan, Evans and Mullen, the latter being detailed at the depot, were assigned to make an investigation.

The three officers were at the railroad station last night when the two men called and boarded the train for the purpose of going to Baltimore. The detectives waited until the suit cases of Dr. Lane and Mr. Bemis were turned over to them and then placed them under arrest. The cap had been broken off the lock of the case of Dr. Lane, and the missing piece was found in the pocket of one of the prisoners. An effort was made by the detectives to obtain a statement from the prisoners this morning, but they would say nothing about themselves. Through the national bureau of identification, the police say, they learned something of the career of the prisoner who gave his name as Henry Atwood.

Record of Atwood. According to the information furnished by Supt. Van Buskirk, who has charge of the bureau, Atwood was first arrested in boy. In 1808 he was arrested for a theft committed in a store in Milwaukee and fined $5. Four years later he was arrested and ordered to leave the city. In Jan-uary, 1905, the record shows, he was again arrested in Milwaukee and permitted to go under a promise that he would leave the city. He had served in the reform school and house of correction, his last appearance in police circles in Milwaukee being in January, 1906, when he was arrested for vagrancy and sentenced to three months' mprisonment in the house of correction. imprisonment in the house of correction. His name appears upon the Milwaukee records as Allison Earl, alias Earl Allison. It is likely that the prisoners will be arraigned in the Police Court tomorrow morning. Copies of their photographs and requests for information respecting their identity have aready been sent to the police departments of many cities.

Lecture on Saloon Evil.

Mr. Henry C. Metcalf, representing the Anti-Saloon League of the District of Columbia, gave an illustrated lecture on the saloon evil last evening, in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church, John Marshall place. His subject was "Dreamers." He spoke of Joseph, Moses and St. John as the dreamers of the olden times. and Fulton, Ericsson and Edison of modern times. "All the great men of all ages were dreamers, and all our great inventions were the result of dreams," he said. "The Anti-Saloon League is composed of dreamers, and we are dreaming of the time when this, the most beautiful city of the world, will be free from the saloon evil. There are 659 saloons in Washington," he continued. "and allowing twenty feet to each saloon they would extend a distance of four miles. They would cover both s'des of Pennsyl-House, and there would still be one hun-dred to exert their baleful influence in an-

CASTRO RETURNS TO OLD HOME.

Venezuelan President Battling Against Consumption and Tumor. CARACAS, May 10.-Battling against consumption and suffering from a tumor over the kidneys, President Castro, driven out of Villa Ignacia by real or fancled dampness and cold, which even many stoves could not ameliorate, was still able to sit up in his coach when he was once more moved across the city a week ago to his old home. Villa Zolla, in the Paradise road. He appeared to be rather prostrated and did not sit forward and salute his friends as he did when he came from Macuto. A group of friends, including Gen. Alejandro Ybarra, met him on his arrival at Villa Zolla, where slowly and with diffioulty he walked to his room.

Now that President Castro is back at Villa Zoila, where his illness began nine months ago, he is only a stone's throw away from the recently completed house of Vice President Gomez, which stands diother part of the city."

The pictures that were shown were all actual photographs of places in the city taken by the photographer of the Anti-Saloon League. The closing pictures were of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt and the officers of the of Vice President Gomez, which stands directly above, and one might truly say that these two men, who have recently been drawn so closely together, have thus been more firmly united, and the passing away of the one and the coming of the other will be an unbroken process which may save Venezuela from political convulsion. What was thought impossible a month ago has come to pass, and President Castro will live to see the assembling of congress, now only three weeks distant. This com-ing congress bids fair to be of great interest because of the decisive action which must be taken on the now urgent American claims, the ever-interesting question as to Street Improvements Desired. President Castro's successor to the presidency, and the fate of many of the monopolies established during the last two years Owing to the uselessness of revolution in Venezuela and to opposition to Gen. Gomez when President Castro dies, and although hitherto an unknown thing for the head of the church in Venezuela to the head of the church in Venezuela to preach political allegiance, the archbishop of Caracas and Venezuela, Dr. Juan Bautista Castro, has addressed a pastoral to the clergy exhorting them to sustain the

TRIED TO DROWN HIMSELF. 300-Pound German Leaped Into the Water, But Floated Like Cork.

NEW YORK, May 10. - Discovering resterday afternoon, after repeated efforts to drown himself, that he floated like a cork, an obese German, bent on suicide, decided to try to end it all by some other method than that of immersion. His efforts at suicide at Atlantic basin moved the dock loungers to unfeeling mirth. The unhappy Teuton, who appeared to The unhappy Teuton, who appeared to weigh about 300 pounds, walked to the end of the Porto Rico line pier, and, with a last look around, jumped into the water. "It's all over," he said, as he took the leap.

But it was not the end. Coming up from the dive, the fat man floated face upward. Again and again he tried to dive under the surface, but his body merely rolled over, and the end of each attempt found him floating with his face upward.

He was trying for the fifth time to sink, when Watchman William Walsh jumped in, tied a rope around him, and hauled him ashore. He was taken into a boller room near by, where he was dried out. While the watchman was deciding what to do with him the German slipped out and dis-

LANKFORD'S GOOD WORK. Maryland Institution Out of Debt-

Gratifying Report Submitted. BRIDEWELL, Md., May 10.-The house of correction is now practically out of debt. This was announced to the managers at their regular monthly meeting at the institution yesterday, all being present except Attorney General Bryan and State Treasurer Vandiver. The May meeting is always regarded as a most important one. as it is at that meeting that the year's business of the institution is closed and all officers of the institution are elected

Gov. Warfield stated before leaving the building that if Mr. Lankford, the superin-tendant, kept up his excellent showing, by the end of the next fiscal year the house of correction will be upon a paying basis and will be in a position to yield to the state a handsome revenue. Supt. Lankford's report showed that on April 30 there were 483 prisoners in the institution, being a slight increase over the number for March. They earned $2,333.59 being an increase of something more than $300 over the earnings of March. The com-mittee on the condition of the institution and the farm reported that they found them to be perfect in every respect. The contract with the Cumberland shirt factory for the employment of 200 prisoners to be used in operating the shirt factory was finally signed yesterday.

THAWS SINK DIFFERENCES. Will Unite All Efforts to Save Harry's

PITTSBURG, May 10,-The relatives of Harry K. Thaw, for the first time thoroughly convinced that he is in dire jeopardy, have decided to sink their personal quarrels and make a united effort to save the life of the Tombs prisoner.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of Thaw, arrived in Pittsburg Wednesday morning, and is a guest at Lyndhurst, the home of Mrs. William Thaw. During her visit to Mrs. William Thaw. During her visit to Pittsburg young Mrs. Thaw will call upon her mother, Mrs. Charles J. Holman of Brookline, and try-to effect a reconciliation. It is expected that the aid of Mrs. Holman will be actively enlisted in behalf of Harry K. Thaw at his second trial.

Mrs. William Thaw returned to Pittsburg Mrs. William Thaw returned to Pittsburg Mrs. Nor. Vork last Saturday. She had from New York last Saturday. She had gone to visit the Countess of Yarmouth, who yesterday sailed for England. It was the desire of Harry Thaw that his wife should come to Pittsburg at this time and enjoy a few weeks of rest. The excitement attending the trial greatly overtaxed the young woman's nerves, and she desires to seclude herself for a time. Mrs. Evelyn Thaw has not made her presuaintances, and none of them appeared to know of her arrival in this city.

Mrs. Holman denied knowledge of her daughter's presence in the city, although she admitted she had expected her later. Her recent statement made a great impression on the daughter, who has never made any reply. Mrs. Holman has said that she was willing to forgive and forget the past, and willing at any time to receive her daughter in her home, and this statement has led to plans for a reconciliation. Up until a few weeks ago young Mrs. Thaw had not been in communication with her mother since her marriage. It is learned from a friend of the family that before the end of the week Mrs. William Thaw and and asked for something to eat.

"Let me work to earn it," the old man begged. "I can ride for you if you'll let me. It's been my trade. My name is John Morrisey. Never mind my ad-dress, the sawdust ring's been my home for gress, the sawdust ring's been my home for years, and it's good enough now."

D'Alma sent Morrisey to the cook tent and later to a bunk for the night. Yesterday morning just before the daily parade, they gave the old man a pony and asked him to show what he could do. His eyes glistened, and with unexpected grace he energy to the horse's back. the sprang to the horse's back.

To the surprise of the scores of neighborhood small boys who gathered about the ring, and even of the performers themselves, Morrisey went through feat after feat. The shabby old man became transfigured on the horse. Several times he laughed aloud as the other performers applauded his riding.

But suddenly Morrisey flung a hand into the air. He struggled an instant as if trying to retain his balance on the back of the running horse, and then he pitched headlong into the ring. Twice he tried to speak and then fell back. The physician who was summoned to the ring declared that the man had died almost instantly.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., May 10 .- Joseph Dennison of Newark, Ohio, general chairman of all the grievance committees of the various organizations of railroad men, arrived here yesterday to make a personal investigation of the track condiditions on the Ohio River division of the Baltimore and Ohio. Ever since the disastrous wreck which occurred a few days ago at Pleasant View facts have been coming to the surface as to the condition of the roadbed on the lower end of the division. It is alleged that protests from the trainmen have received no recognition, and Mr. Dennison has been appealed to to look into the alleged conditions. Some interesting developments are expected.

FOR SOUR STOMACH,

sults of faulty digestion and often is accompanied by beiching, bloating, headaches and dizziness. To relieve this condition and restore the digestive organs to their normal condition the following formula is said to work wonders: "Two ounces Essence of Pepsin; three ounces Syrup of Ginger; one ounce Catandir Compound; mix these well and use in doses of from one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal,
